I understand that enrollment in The Phoenix Academy is by admission only. The Phoenix Academy is intended for students at-risk of dropping out or who currently are not enrolled in a MISD high school, but are still eligible for a high school diploma. This application does not guarantee entry into the program. If I am admitted, I understand that following the MISD student code of conduct is expected as well as consistent demonstration of academic progress determined by each class. Attendance is crucial for academic progress. I understand lack of progress and/or attendance can result in being withdrawn from the program. A conference will be held to determine what's in the best interest of the student.
